Appraisal Info:

Laurel's attics and basements are full of treasures!

If you've ever wondered about that piece that you've been holding on to for years or just picked up at the thrift store, now is the time to learn more.

$5 per item for members/$10 per item for non-members

Todd Peenstra will be running the appraisal event. Todd is a nationally known antiques and art appraiser. He specializes in handling personal property appraisals for estate settlements, divorces, tax donations, estate planning, estate disbursement and insurance issues Todd will be on hand offering appraisals, consultations, and advice on anything you might own including but not limited to furniture, glass, porcelain, paintings, silver, bronze, coins, toys, documents, etc. Of course, you can always bring an image of the piece in questions. Todd does not appraise books or stamps.

RSVP for both events requested but not required.
