Last Friday night a military ball was given at the "old mill" at which the total complement of men here were present, many of the town people, and a large number of ladies from Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington.

Cul. Johnson, commanding officer of the now famous 23rd, led the dance and a royal good time was had by the large number present.

It was a beautifully arranged affair and the boys deserve great credit for the masterly manner in which the great crowd was managed. The large dancing room, formerly used as the carding room, was decorated with red, white and blue bunting and streams of decorated paper, together with small cedar trees, made the big room look like a fairy cave upon entering.
