

Have you M.E.T? Museum, Eats, and Theater in Historic Laurel October 9, 2010

The Laurel Historical Society and the Laurel Mill Playhouse
Present a Very American Night Out in Laurel

6:00 pm: Begin your evening with dinner at the Laurel Museum.

Dine in the galleries of the Laurel Museum and take time to enjoy the atmosphere. Explore how Laurel has defined community in the past 100 years through the current exhibit "Snapshots in Time: Our Community in 1910 and 2010."

8:00 pm: Continue your evening on Laurel's Main Street with a trip to the Laurel Mill Playhouse to see "The American Way."

The American Way is an epic tale of the American immigrant experience in the early 1900's. It covers 50 years of the life of Martin Gunther, a German immigrant, who through out his life never falters from his faith in America, the land of freedom and hope. "The American Way is produced in conjunction with Between Fences, a Smithsonian traveling exhibition, and it's companion exhibit, Barriers & Gateways: The Immigrant Experience, now on view at Montpelier Mansion." Produced by special arrangement with Dramatist Play Service. By Moss Hart and George S. Kaufman

Cost, $35

RSVP by October 4, 2010

info@laurelhistoricalsociety.org or 301.725.7975

Reservations Must Include Email and Phone Number.

Laurel Mill Playhouse
P.O. Box 423
Laurel, MD 20725
301-617-9906
LMP@laurelmillplayhouse.org
<http://www.laurelmillplayhouse.org>

Have you M.E.T.?

Laurel Historical Society
817 Main Street
Laurel, MD 20707
301.725.7975
info@laurelhistoricalsociety.org
www.laurelhistoricalsociety.org