

The Laurel Historical Society's Lecture Series presents:

Message or Myth: Quilts and the Underground Railroad

Speaker: Susan Soderberg

Wednesday, October 8, 2008

7:00 PM

At the Laurel Municipal
Pool Meeting Room

9th and Main Streets

Laurel, MD

Recently, a theory that quilts were used as signals on the Underground Railroad has spread like wildfire to become wildly held as historical fact. This program will go into the history of quilting in America and the history of the Underground Railroad and has a surprise ending with an entirely new theory!
