Join the Laurel Historical Society for Slow Art Day, a worldwide event with the simple aim of helping people discover for themselves the joy of looking at and loving art.

How It Works:

Visit the Laurel Museum on Saturday, April 11 between 10am and Noon

Look at five art objects—paintings, photographs, and other items—for 10 minutes each

Come together over free lunch at the Museum between 12-1pm to talk about your experience

It's that's simple!

Slow Art Day is a movement which values simplicity. Simple by design, the goal of Slow Art Day is to focus on the art and the art of seeing.

Didn't know the Laurel Museum had art in its collection? Not used to looking at art? That's fine! This event is for art-viewing novices and experts alike.
