Still Time To Dig Summer Camp

Spots are still available for the Laurel Historical Society's 3 free fun and educational summer camps. Kids are sure to "dig" our first Archaeology Camp July 8-12 run by the LHS' own Executive Director Ann Bennett. Activities include researching the archaeology of a bedroom. Open to rising 5th & 6th graders. August 5-8 our wacky but STEM focused Rube Goldberg Camp is available for rising 3rd-5th graders. August 12-16 Science in the Summer this year focuses on the circulatory and digestive systems and has openings for 2nd & 3rd Graders. All Camps are free.
