

Margaret Brent: A Colonial "Gentleman"

MEET Colonial America's first female lawyer, landowner and advocate for a woman's right to vote at a time when women had few rights, and almost no power.

Mary Ann Jung is an award-winning actress, writer and director whose live performances of historical female characters have thrilled audiences of all ages. Her performances are both educational and entertaining.

Thursday March 19, 2009

Montpelier Arts Center

9652 Muirkirk Road, Laurel

6:30 p.m.: Networking and Light Supper

7:30 p.m.: Program

This Women's History Month Event is sponsored by...

- ◆ American Association of University Women of Laurel
- ◆ Business and Professional Women of Laurel and Southern Prince George's
- ◆ Greater Bowie Chamber of Commerce, Women in Business Committee
- ◆ Laurel Historical Society ◆ Soroptimist International of Bowie-Crofton

REGISTRATION FORM

Please register by March 5, 2009 – seating is limited. Price includes a light supper and the program.

Name: _____

E-mail: (Optional) _____ Number of reservations: _____

Phone: _____ Amount Enclosed: _____

Cost: $28 per person, payable to SIBC (Soroptimist International of Bowie-Crofton).

Mail to: SIBC, P.O. Box 652, Bowie, MD 20718.

If you have questions, please call Christine Whelehan at 301/262-0920.

Come for the History and Networking. Stay for the raffle.